(2) A suit under sub-section (1) must be instituted in a Civil Court having jurisdiction in the local area in which the office of the Collector who made the certificate is situated and the suit shall be determined in accordance with the law in force at the place where the arrear accrued or the liability for the payment of the sum arose.

(3) In the suit the plaintiff may, notwithstanding anything in the last foregoing section, but subject to the law in force at the place aforesaid, give evidence with respect to any matter stated in the certificate.

(4) This section shall apply if under this Act as in force as part of the law of Pakistan or Burma or under any other similar Act forming part of the law of Pakistan or Burma, proceedings are taken against a person in Pakistan or Burma, as the case may be, for the recovery of an amount stated in a certificate made by a Collector in any State to which this Act extends.

(5) Recovery by Collector of sums recoverable as arrears of revenue by other public officers or by local authorities. Whether any sum is recoverable as an arrear of land-revenue by any public officer other than a Collector or by any local authority, the Collector, of the district which the office of that officer or authority is situate shall on the request of the officer or authority, proceed to recover the sum as if it wherean arrear of land-revenue which had accrued in his own district, and may send a certificate of the amount ot be recovered to the Collector of another district under the foregoing lprovisions of this Act, as if the sum, were payable to himself.

6. Property liable to sale under this ACT. - (1) When the Collector of a district receives a certificate under the Act, he may issue a proclamation prohibiting the transfer or charging of any immovable property belonging to the defaulter in the district.

(2) The Collector may at any time, by order in writing withdraw the proclamation, and it shall be deemed to be withdrwn when either the amount stated in the certificate has been recovered or the property has been sold for the recovery of ofthat amount.

(3) Any private alienation of the property or of any interest of the defaulter therein, whether by sale, gift, mortgage or othwise, made after the issue of the proclamation and beofre the withdrawal thereof, shall be void as against the Government and any person who may purchase the property at a sale held for the recovery of the amount stated in the certificate.

(4) Subject to the forgoing provisions of this section, when proceedings are taken against any immovable property under this Act for the recovery of an amount stated in a ceritificate, the interests of the defaulter alone therein shall be so proceeded against, and no incumbrances created, grants made or contracts entered into by him in good faith shall be rendered invalid by reason only of proceedings being taken against those interest.

(5) A proclamation under this section shall be made by beat of drum or other customary method and by the posting of a copy thereof on a conspicuous place in or near the property to which it relates.

7. Saving of local laws relating to revenue, - Nothing in the foregoing sections shall be construed-

(a) to impair any security provided by, or affect the provisions of, any other enactment for the time being in force for the recovery of land-Revenue or of sums recoverable as arrears of land revenue, or

(b) to authorise the arrest of any person for the recovery of any tax payable to the corpora-tion, commissioner, committee, board, council or person having authority over a municipality under any enactment for the time being in force.

8. Recovery in India of certain public demands arising beyond India:- When this Act has been applied to any local area which is under the administration of the Central Government but which is not part of India an arrear of land-revenue accruing in that local area, or a sum recoverable as an arrear of land-revenue and payable to a Collector or other public officer or to a local authority in that local area, may be recovered under this Act in India.

9. Recovery in India of land revenues, ect., accruing in Burma, - The Central Government may direct that an arrear of land-revenue accruing in Burma or a sum recoverable in Burma as an arrear of land-revenue and payable to a Collector or other public officer or to a local authority in Burma may be recovered under this Act in India and thereupon such arrear or sum shall be so recoverable:

provided that the Central Government shall not give any such direction unless it is satisfied that the remedy available under section 4 of this Act in India is available under protest in India an arrear accruing in India underBurma law in Burma to a person paying under protest in India an arrear accruing in Burma.

(2) For recovering by virtue of this section any arrears of tax or penalty due under the enactments relating to income tax or super-tax in force in Burma, the Collector shall have such additional powers as he has in the case of India incometax and super-tax under the provision to section 46(2) of the Income-tax Act, 1922.

(3) Sub-sections (1) and (2) shall apply in relation to Pakistan as they apply in relation to Burma.

10. Duty of Collectors to remit money collected in certain cases. - Where a Collector receives a certificate under this Act from a Collector of another State or a Collector in Pakistan or Burma, he shall remit any sum recovered by him by virtue of that certificate to that Collector, after deducting his expenses in connection with the matter.
